

MANUKORIHI GOLF CLUB INC.

Club Captain's Report

Weather was fine enough for some good golfing last Saturday with the Haggles been stableford.

Forty players having some improved scores from previous weeks and topping the scores was Jo Downe with a 43 followed by Phil Wilson 40, Steve Voyle 39, Robin Broadmore, Theo Drake and Peter Bingham all having 37.

Twos scored by Paul Fairhurst and Shane Grylls got a couple therefore taking the Jackpot once again.

We had a board raffle draw and also pick off the table raffle with eight lucky meat pack winners.

Maree back on deck after a break doing a great job just remember to check out her black board before teeing off you may want to order your snack.

On Sunday we had Paul Rauputu, Kelly Brown, Martin Nobbs and Joy East represented Manukorihi at the Top Club played at Inglewood with a good result finishing 3rd. Great effort team but everyone is back to Inglewood next year as they retained the title.

This weekend Men and Ladies are playing for the Bridge Cup format stableford so hopefully you have booked your tee time.

If for any reason you are unable to make your tee time, please remove yourself from booking as soon as you can this will allow others to fill the vacant spot.

The tee booking is printed out each Saturday morning about 7:45am.

18-hole Ladies

There are going to be a trial setup for tee blocks on 12th and 18th this weekend.

The 12th will be approximately 415m and the 18th 420m.

You all will be playing off the current slope until the tee's are sorted.

Nine-hole course

There will be no change to any of the nine-hole courses as they will be teeing off the current tee blocks.

Doesn't the new deck look great well done all involved

Good Golfing Everyone

Hello everyone from the Manu Travelers

The weekend saw 24 players from Manu travel to Waitomo for the ITM 36-hole tournament. What a great tournament with the hospitality of Waitomo again exceeding expectation.

The group was a bit split this year with the movers and groovers staying in a Air B and B just beside the 10th tee so they were able to roll or dance home. With the more quieter group stayed in Otorohonga. Then we had a small group who drove their own accommodation.

The course was again looking spectacular, and the weather played its part. Over the 2 days we had Sherriff Fay walking to course gathering tit bits on everyone - this bought in a substantial amount in fines - I am not sure though if she fined herself.

We had some great scores posted by the Manu players and you had to play under your handicap to feature in the prizes or even in the Manu haggle.

Robbie Sim, Kevin Mancer and Maureen qualified for the Calcutta with Robbie giving his jockeys a financial gain.

Robbie, Gary (more we drink the better we play) Crawford, John Skullen, Greg Jans, Ace, Maureen and Hari all took home prizes.

Now it is "what happens on tour stays on tour" but I did hear that Trish Crawford is a great Poker player -

Next trip is to Taumarunui in a couple of weeks.

Happy Golfing to you all.

Waitara new World Wednesday Club.

A great turn out for the third round of the top dog. After checking the numbers over the 3 rounds the winners with a nett score of 196 were Robert Fraser and Carl Beale. Runner up was Amanda and Kelly with 199.

Other winner in division one was Clayton Riddle with a nett 72 to win a $20 new world voucher, Kerry Edgcombe, Tony Bromfield, and Albert Hodgkinson all 73, Jim Ropitini 74.

Division two with a nett 70 was Lee Mather a $20 voucher, Teddy Danych 72, Peter Lopyy, Mary Hamblyn, and Bill Wadsworth all 73,

Kerry Edgcombe had a 2 at the 5th and Arapeta at the 11th,

Cheers

Golf Cart Bookings,

For the members that book a golf cart, can you please contact Joy East by TXT 0272805372. Letting joy know that you require a cart, also if members take a phone call for our visitors, please check that we have a cart available and right it up on the golf cart Calander behind the bar with name and phone number and let Joy Know.

This is so that we are not booking carts that we don't have. The committee is looking at buying another couple of carts going forward.

Thanks.

The Committee.

Don't forget the tournament is in the 9th November.
