Club Captain's Report

The weather last Saturday put a few golfers off enduring the elements but there were thirty-five that put club to ball and had a great day with no rain and a small breeze.

Best of the day Gary Pigott with 41 points, Lana Kingi 38, Brendon dew 37, Clayton Riddle, Bryan Bellamy and Toko Waitere all with 36 points.

Three two's scored Michael Burkhart, Trevor Woods and Toko Waitere.

Sixty raffle tickets sold so check the sheet at the bar if you were a winner.

Greens are coming great after the coring and will be even better each week going forward. Thanks to all the team out there each week.

Another top effort from Maree in the kitchen and those loaded Wedges were fantastic.

This weekend is a Mass start at 9:30 so be at the club by 9am so we can get started on time because we have the Taranaki Speed Golf on the course at 2pm.

The course will be closed after the mass start has started and also be closed on Sunday.

Members will have reciprocal rights at Westown and if you wish to play there please contact them before going.

The Speed Golf will be great to watch with some real speedster's competing and the one to watch will be Robin Smith who just won the US Open and is aiming to be back at Manukorihi and may show us all how to play a round in 40 minutes and shoot under 80.

Good golfing to all

We have a Mass start this Saturday.

On Tuesday we played the white tees. Again, showers kept coming in and only 3 finished the round. Lana won with 34 points. Meryn got the drawn two.

Next Tuesday we play Hidden Partners. We have our Open Christmas hamper coming up and would appreciate raffle donations for the day.

Nominations for the ladies committee are up. Time to consider putting your name forward to support the ladies.
