Ladies Club Captains Report

Both Saturday and Tuesday ladies were down in numbers because of other competitions and events but great golf on the course, though a little damp on Tuesday with a hardy band of Golfers challenging the course. I think the weather won as it was a short 18 holes.

Lydia Ko is the youngest World number 1 at 17 years old, and she said “You just have to embrace the hand you’re dealt. Life is going to go on.” She was commenting on resilience and building it through unexpected challenges.

Next week the competition is Gross Stableford, followed, on the 27th, by “Train wreck” for the first 9 and Irish Stableford for last 9, which should build resilience. Hurry back Marie!

Cheers, Meryn

Ladies 9 Hole Members

Isn't Golf great! I so look forward to Tuesday golf with friends. You don't know if you are going to play like a pro golfer or like a tree hugger in the rough Dumpy. But it's always fun, fitness, vitamin D and banter over lunch 🙏

PUTTING COMPETITION

We played course 2 on Tuesday with threatening rain but got through with just drizzle on last couple of holes.

Group 1 winner was Rhonda McFarlane with 15 Putts

Group 2 winner was Teresa Tuffery on count back from Julie Wesley both with 15 Putts

Looking forward to next Tuesday

John Garner's golf tips

In Matchplay, do not be influenced by the oppositions “POWER,” their “CLOTHING” or the way they “CHATTER.” Yes, easy to say but difficult to do, but that’s Match-play!!!

Focus on your game not theirs. Work out your route around the course not theirs. If they go Out of Bounds do not follow!!!

If they charge the ball past on the putting green, don’t follow. If they come up short pay attention to the wind. LEARN to THINK don’t be INFLUENCED!!!

Good Luck & Happy Golfing.
Professional John Garner.
