Club Captain's Report

Closing day last weekend was a very hot muggy day but it was great to see all the members out there enjoying a day of golf on a well-presented course. Winners of the day received Hams, Lamb, prawns and a heap of other goodies. There were some big long drives down the eighteenth also a few twos to top it off.

At prize giving Kath Alvis was presented with a bunch of flowers for her achievements in the women's Veteran's Trophy within Taranaki and New Zealand.

All the other trophies played for throughout the year were also were announced and presented.

All in all, it has been a great 2024 throughout the whole club and may 2025 be even greater but it not quite all over yet as we have the shootout this weekend with the draw been posted out earlier in the week. Then we have the Popup open on Sunday 15th with a full field once again.

Reminder the AGM this Monday at 7pm.

Waitara new World Wednesday Club.

A couple of light showers greeted 30 players today for a round of Par and counts those putts. But one hole in and the umbrellas came down and the putting pros got to work. Jim Ropitini and Bill Wadsworth mastered the greens with 27 putts to take home the sausage rolls.

Div 1 went to Jim Ropitini by lot to Peter Pearce with +2. JC & Kelly Brown +1

Div 2 was all Peter Lopy +4 with Steve Hadland from Inglewood on +3

A big thanks to Steve for a donation of half a kilo of whitebait which will be used for raffles.

Twos to Geoff Peters, Peter Pearce and Barry Burns

7 raffles given out for the day

Thanks to those that helped today and Marie for feeding us

Cheers
